

MEDIA ADVISORY**

Save Our Heritage

Protecting the birthplace of the American Revolution,
the cradle of the American Environmental Movement,
and the home of the American Literary Renaissance.

NATIONAL TRUST FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION TO MAKE MAJOR ANNOUNCEMENT ABOUT MINUTE MAN NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK, WALDEN
AND SURROUNDING LANDMARKS AGAINST THE BACKDROP OF CLIMATE CHANGE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 2024

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Anna Winter/Save Our Heritage: anna@saveourheritage.com

Kathi Anderson/The Walden Woods Project: kathi.anderson@walden.org

Ashley Judd will speak at a public event in Concord relating to the unique historic corridor that includes and surrounds Minute Man National Historical Park, Walden Pond/Walden Woods, and Orchard House.

Save Our Heritage, The Walden Woods Project, Orchard House and The Concord Historical Commission will host the National Trust for Historic Preservation from Washington D.C. for a major public announcement on May 1st at 11:00 am.

WHEN: Wednesday, May 1st, 2024, 11:00 am EST

WHERE: The Old Manse (under a tent, rain or shine)
269 Monument Street, Concord, MA 01742

PROGRAM: REMARKS BY:

- Ashley Judd, Goodwill Ambassador for the United Nations Population Fund, actor, author, and activist
- Senator Mike Barrett, State Senator for Massachusetts' 3rd Middlesex District
- Representative Simon Cataldo, State Representative for Massachusetts' 14th Middlesex District
- Betsy Merritt, Deputy General Counsel for the National Trust for Historic Preservation
- Douglas Brinkley (via video), Professor of History/Rice University, and CNN Presidential historian and best-selling author

Further details are embargoed until the day of the event.